

At-Sea Enforcement and Naval Warfare

Seminar, 20 September 2017

Venue: UiT The Arctic University of Norway

Program

- 1000-1005 Opening of the Seminar - Tore Henriksen (JCLOS)
Session 1: At-Sea Enforcement; moderated by Erik J. Molenaar (JCLOS)
- 1005-1030 The Extent to which a Coastal State may use Armed Force against Suspected Foreign Submarines in its Internal Waters and Territorial Sea – Said Mahmoudi (University of Stockholm)
- 1030-1055 Violent Protests at Sea: Eco-Piracy, Terrorism or Sui Generis Offence? - Maria Chiara Noto (JCLOS)
- 1055-1110 Coastal State Powers in dealing with Maritime Casualties and Shipwrecks; Reflections on Post-UNCLOS Developments - Iva Parlov (JCLOS)
- 1110-1135 Plenary Discussion
- 1135-1150 Refreshment Break
Session 2: The Application of the Law of Armed Conflicts and IMO Conventions; moderated by Erik J. Molenaar (JCLOS)
- 1150-1215 The Scope of Applicability at Sea of the Law of Armed Conflicts: Its Distinction from Incidents at Sea and its Applicability to Non-International Armed Conflicts - Wolff Heintschel von Heinegg (European University Viadrina Frankfurt (Oder))
- 1215-1240 The Interplay between IMO Conventions and International Humanitarian Law: A Blank Spot on the Legal Map - Anna Petrig (University of Basel)
- 1240-1300 Plenary Discussion
- 1300-1345 Lunch
Session 3: Naval Hostilities and Blockade; moderated by Don Rothwell (Australian National University)
- 1345-1410 Exclusion Zones and Weapons Technology after the 1994 San Remo Manual - Arne Willy Dahl (retired Norwegian Judge Advocate General)
- 1410-1435 Naval Blockade - Magne Frostad (JCLOS)
- 1435-1455 Plenary Discussion
- 1455-1510 Refreshment break

Session 4: Protection and Implementation; moderated by Don Rothwell (Australian National University)

- 1510-1535 Protecting Wounded, Sick and Shipwrecked Members of Armed Forces in Naval Warfare: Key Findings of the Updated (2017) Commentary on the Second Geneva Convention – Bruno Demeyere (International Committee of the Red Cross)
- 1535-1600 Implementing the Rules on Naval Warfare through Rules of Engagement – Camilla Guldahl Cooper (The Norwegian Defence University College)
- 1600-1620 Plenary Discussion
- 1620-1630 Closing of the Seminar – Magne Frostad (JCLOS)